El Paso Merchants Consider Move to Reduce Insurance Rates. A Merchants' Mutual fire ins rance company is being disgussed by the owners as the next move combat the insurance companies in their effort to increase the rates on El Paso policies beyond reason. The success of a tual company which has been in exist ence among the lumber dealers of tha state for the past 19 years, has inspired a number of the merchants of El Paso to consider seriously the proposition of organizing a mutual among the merchants, business men and property owners in general in this city. It would be affiliated with the other mutual
